

FISCAL NOTE

SB 1266 - HB 983

February 17, 2001

SUMMARY OF BILL: Amends requirement for driver license application to specify that a social security number is not required if the applicant has not been issued one. Expands the types of identification documents that a driver license examiner may accept from applicants who are not U.S. citizens.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Revenues - Not Significant

Increase State Expenditures - Not Significant

Estimate assumes:

- there will be an increase in the number of individuals, who are not U.S. citizens, requesting driver license services.
- the Department of Safety will experience a not significant increase in expenditures which the department reports can be absorbed in the agency's budget for the costs associated with serving these additional applicants.
- the state will experience a not significant increase in revenues from additional driver license fees collected.
